METHODISTS CELEBRATE BEGINNING OF TWENTY- FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Dr. C. M. Boswell and Dr. T. H. Evans Preachers for Historical Sunday Program—Eminent Churchmen—Excellent Music—Reception and Entertainment—Culminating With Sermon By Bishop Joseph F. Berry

The Little Church, on the Hill celebrates her silver anniversary with a week's jubilee, beginning this Sunday with the Rev. Charles M. Boswell, D. D., and the Rev. Thomas H. Evans, D. D., as the preachers for Historical Day.

Dr. Boswell is one of Methodism's leaders and participated in the service when the present edifice was dedicated, September 15, 1895. Dr. Evans, pastor of the Haws Avenue Church, Norristown, served the church from 1894 to 1897, and presided at the dedication. It is a happy culmination of events which brings these two old friends back to Narberth as speakers for Historical Sunday.

The choir, directed by Miss Vera Bernice Chesley, the organist, will be assisted by Mr. Herman J. Bub, tenor; Mrs. Nellie M. Denman, contralto; Mrs. Joseph Barclay, soprano, and others. Miss Alvetta Bliss, a teacher of harmony, will play the violin at the evening services.

Greetings from the local churches are to be presented on Community Night, Wednesday, November 7. The Presbyterian and Baptist churches will close their prayer services and be represented on the program by their pastors, the Rev. John Van Ness and the Rev. Avery S. Demmy. Mr. Charles E. Hires, of Haverford, a member of the Old Merion Meeting House, is to extend greetings from the friends in and about the community. Main Line Methodism will present congratulations through the pastors of Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Wayne.

Friday, November 9, is Congregational Night, with an informal entertainment and reception to all members of the congregation by the Ladies' Aid Society. Delightful reminiscences, the reunion of former members, music and the serving of refreshments assures the congregation of a pleasant evening.

The jubilee closes with all-day services Sunday, November 11. The Rev. G. Bickley Burns, D. D., district superintendent, will preach in the morning. The anniversary sermon is to be delivered by the Reverend Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D. D., LL. D.

The church will be artistically decorated by Miss Miriam Ward. Souvenir programs are to be distributed.

The pastor and members join in extending to all members of the community a hearty and cordial welcome to each service.

THE LITTLE CHURCH ON THE HILL

TWO INTERESTING COMMUNICATIONS

To the Republican voter of Narberth: At the primary election held on the 19th day of September last, candidates were elected on the Republican ticket whose names will appear on the ballot for election on November 6, 1917.

Among the candidates was Mr. Raymond Jones, who was nominated for tax collector. He was the choice of the people over the other candidates. There will be a ticket called "The Borough Ticket" on the ballot at election which has on it the names of all the Republican candidates nominated at the primary election with the exception of Mr. Jones.

Attention is called to the fact that a vote for the Borough ticket does not carry with it a vote for any one on the County ticket, making it necessary to split the ballot at election with all that that implies. No objection can be honestly made against anyone of the regular nominees chosen after a full and free canvass, and I most urgently appeal, therefore, to all the Republican voters in the borough to stand by the candidates who were fairly nominated at the September primary election.

I would call attention to the fact that many who were not eligible to vote at the primaries can cast their ballot at the coming election.

CHARLES V. NOEL,

Republican Committeeman, Borough of Narberth.

A COSTUME DANCE

One of the prettiest affairs of the season was given on Friday evening, October 26, by Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Downes, at their residence, 315 Woodside avenue.

The guests were requested to come in costume, and there were many beautiful as well as comic ones there. The house beginning at the entrance was most artistically decorated with cornstalks, autumn leaves, fruit and all things appropriate for the Halloween season.

The dim lights and grotesque pumpkin and paper faces combined to make things as spooky as possible.

The first part of the evening was spent in dancing, then the good things were partaken of, after which the guests were entertained by the Town Comedian, Mr. Carroll Downes, and his able partner, Mr. William Maddox, who kept the party in peals of laughter until the wee small hours of the morning. Mrs. Downes, as Buster Brown, made a charming hostess, for which the following could vouch:

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Romaine Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Polhemus, Mr. and Mrs. William Ehni, Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. George Rose and Miss Mary Peebles, all of Narberth, and Mr. Edgar Wheeler, of Chicago.

NOTICE

A meeting of Democrats is called for Tuesday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock, at 211 Essex avenue, in the interest of all the nominees of the party.

To the voters of Narberth:

There are 778 registered voters in Narberth. On primary day, September 19, about 300 votes were cast, this low number being due largely to the fact that many of our townspeople were away from home or prevented by other reasons from visiting the polls.

The result of the ballot for tax collector showed a difference of only 20 votes, on all tickets, in favor of my principal opponent. In view of all the circumstances, it is unreasonable for anyone to claim that the primary day figures reflect conclusively the sentiment of the voters of the borough. Hence I beg to announce that I have yielded to the pressure which has been brought to bear on me by my many friends, not to accept the result of the aforesaid as the final verdict, and to make an independent campaign for the office of tax collector.

In asking for your vote on election day, November 6, I feel it only just to myself to mention that I have been a resident property owner and taxpayer of Narberth for 16 years, during which period I have several times held public office, which entailed on my part sacrifices of various kinds in order to give the people and the borough the best that was in me. No office I have ever held carried any remuneration and I feel that as there is now an office in the gift of the people, for which my years of experience and knowledge of local affairs have peculiarly fitted me, I come before the voters and ask their suffrage in the confident belief that I have deserved it.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. HUMPHREYS.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO RED CROSS WORKERS

Owing to the loss of a vessel last week with a million dressings on board, an urgent call has been sent out by headquarters for workers on surgical dressings. At Bryn Mawr, the days for work on surgical dressings are Mondays, Tuesday and Thursdays. Narberth workers are invited to help. The Narberth days for this kind of work are Mondays and Fridays. A prompt response to this call is urged, as the need is great. The fact that our own boys are now in the trenches should be an additional stimulus to renewed activity.

The Government has also sent out an urgent call for a half million sweaters. Narberth women are asked to keep on with the good work they are doing in this line, keeping in mind that cold weather is rapidly approaching, and enough sweaters to go around are not to be obtained in any other way than by volunteer service.

NEW NARBERTH PLAN TO MEET THE HIGH COST OF LIVING NEARING COMPLETION

An Important Feature Is That a Square Deal Is Assured the Consumer, The Local Retailer, The Local Bank and The Wholesaler—Watch "Our Town" for a Detailed Announcement

The new Narberth Plan for reducing the high cost of living and establishing more efficient merchandising methods for all parties concerned, is fast nearing a state which will permit of a detailed public announcement.

Another meeting of the citizens who are co-operating with Mr. A. B. Ross, of Narberth, an acknowledged expert on this subject, who is now working with the State Committee of Public Safety, was held last evening at the home of W. R. D. Hall, on Dudley avenue, to further develop the plan.

Mr. Ross, as spokesman for the committee, of which Mr. Hall and Mr. C. Howard McCarter are also members, submitted what might be termed a "general detailed" outline of the proposition. The plan is based strictly on sound, economic business principles, including those features which in some form or other have been successful in other communities and carefully omitting those features which experience has proven faulty. At this time further details cannot be published, but it is essential that this fact be made absolutely clear and emphatic.

The organization of consumers, as provided for in The Narberth Plan, will assure economies or advantages for the consumer, the local retailer, the local bank and the wholesaler—there will be a square deal, and a new and advantageous deal, for all these four interests.

Some preliminary work yet remains to be done, and as soon as that is finished the citizens of our borough may look for a complete announcement, coupled with the assurance that their co-operation, and assistance and suggestions will be welcomed. Watch "Our Town" for further news of The Narberth Plan.

There are two communications in this issue of Our Town in relation to the election of a Tax Collector for Narberth at the November election. As we have repeatedly stated, we cannot take sides in any political discussion without sacrificing our position as a non-partisan publication. There is, however, no objection to publishing any letter free from offensive personalities. Both of these letters are written in a temperate style, with the evident desire of fairly presenting the situation from different points of view. We submit them to the judgment of our voters, without prejudice, and with confidence that, no matter what the outcome may be we will have a good Tax Collector.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the Y. M. C. A. are to be most heartily congratulated on the great success of "Lovey Mary's Garden," the fair held last Friday and Saturday in the Y. M. C. A. Building. The months of preparation spent by them were well rewarded, as we understand the receipts were over $700, with only comparatively trifling expenses.

More satisfactory even than the financial results, is the demonstration that so many of our people are deeply interested in the welfare of the Y. M. C. A. The responses to appeals for aid were very gratifying, showing that the Y. M. C. A. has a firm hold in the regards of the people of Narberth. In this connection, it may not be amiss to record the remark of one of our young men, enlisted and in camp at Cape May, who visited the fair on Saturday. He said that the boys would have no recreation or relief from the tedium of camp life, were it not for the Y. M. C. A. there. No matter in what field of endeavor it works, the Y. M. C. A. has become indispensable, and must be supported.

There has been considerable good work done in Narberth during the past few months by our various organizations, and in one particular instance the result accomplished has been very encouraging and commendable. The community buying, of which Mrs. W. M. Cameron is chairman, has been selling large quantities of butter, eggs and canned goods since the first week in May.

During the past week over one hundred and eighty pounds of butter were disposed of at a saving of from eight to ten cents per pound, and a large quantity of eggs at a saving of from six to seven cents per dozen.

The large saving in the canned goods has been an important item and with the State Department of Markets, at Harrisburg, potatoes and apples have been ordered by Mrs. Cameron as chairman and over four hundred bushels of potatoes are on order as well as twenty-five barrels of apples.

Much credit is due the activity of those who have pushed this work, and it is but one of the many instances where excellent results are accomplished for good of the welfare, but where very little is known regarding the good work accomplished.

We have again been privileged to attend a meeting at which Mr. Ross further developed the "Narberth Plan" of buying groceries, vegetables and fruits economically. This plan has been most carefully worked out, and appeals to us as absolutely logical and practicable. It is fair and just, not only to the buyer, but to the seller as well.

Narberth may be considered as very fortunate in having the first opportunity of giving this plan a practical trial, and of having its name connected with it. Narberth will render the nation a great service by demonstrating, under this plan, that a great saving is possible in purchasing supplies. The food question is looming into greater prominence daily, and advantage must be taken of every possible opportunity to cut off every useless corner in the purchase and distribution of supplies. Under this plan, the dollar will attain its highest point of efficiency.

At the very earliest possible moment, the women of Narberth will be given an opportunity of passing on the plan. We believe it will meet with their unqualified approval. Mr. Ross has made a deep study of the whole question, and is pre-eminently qualified to speak with authority on it. We again commend the plan to their most careful and earnest consideration.

Wonder is often expressed that German soldiers can be guilty of the atrocious cruelties practiced during the great war, as originally Germans were known as a kindly, home-loving people. The explanation may be found in the teachings of Friedrich Nietzsche, who, in 1881, wrote "Thus Spake Zarathustra." The teachings of this half-crazed "philosopher" seem to have made a deep impression on the German people. We quote a few "gems":

"I teach you the Superman. Man is something that is to be surprised. What have ye done to surpass man?"

"I conjure you, my brethren, remain true to the earth, and believe not those who speak unto you of super-earthly hopes. Poisoners are they, whether they know it or not."

"Once blasphemy against God was the greatest blasphemy; but God died, and therewith also those blasphemers. To blaspheme the earth is now the dreadfulest sin, and to rate the heart of the unknowable higher than the meaning of the earth."

"What is the greatest thing ye can experience? It is the hour of great contempt, in which even your happiness becomes loathsome to you, and so also your reason and virtue. The hour when you can say, What good is my happiness, my reason, my virtue, my justice, my pity?"

"Have ye ever cried thus? Ah! Would that I had heard you crying thus."

And so it goes on, through over three hundred pages of the ravings of a dope-crazed "philosopher," so-called. And yet it is only such teachings that can account for the metamorphosis of a gentle, kindly people into pitiless monsters, capable of unheard of cruelties.

REASSURING

A woman hired a taxicab. The door of the cab was hardly closed before the engine started with a jerk, and the cab began to race madly along, narrowly missing lamp posts, trolley cars, policemen, etc. Becoming frightened, the woman rapped on the window of the cab and said:

"Please be careful. This is the first time I ever rode in a taxi."

The chauffeur reassured the passenger as follows:

"That's all right, ma'am. This is the first time I ever drove one!"—St. Louis Mirror.

It takes the wasp to make a lazy man get a move on himself. All it has to do is back up against him and push.

Cub Returns From Keokuk And Is On Deck Again

Dead Mr. Editor:

Please assure "Yearner" that I am not a "dead one"—that is, not quite. By the way, doesn't that nom de plume rhyme beautifully with the name of a famous local drop line fisherman? Tell "Yearner" that I am now a war correspondent at the Front—of Elm Hall, reporting the deeds of valor performed by the members of the Home Town's special pet, the Narberth Home Guard. You can imagine how busy I am. When the war is over I may return to my post on "Our Town's" porch.

In the meantime, you might give me your opinion as to whether I pursued the proper course in solving a rather perplexing problem which confronted me recently. It seems that I was advised by several people to give up smoking and put the money saved into Liberty Bonds. That listened good, but I wondered how Howard Davis could buy bonds, if I stopped buying cigars from him. It would have been selfish on my part to deprive him of the opportunity of buying bonds by buying them myself. But, this shows how resourceful I am. I settled the question by continuing to buy cigars and by buying bonds also. As some base ball man said, "When at first you don't succeed, steal second."

Before I go back to the trenches, I should like to call your attention to the fact that "Our Town's" Honor Roll there appears the name of one of our local boys who happens to be the only one on the entire list that is actually on the battle ground. His name is at the foot, however, and we think the printer should be instructed to reverse positions somewhat.

By the way, does it hurt to yearn? "Cub."

Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols Speaks in Narberth

The Women's Community Club of Narberth opened its yearly program with a luncheon in the Community Rooms of the Y. M. C. A.

The chief speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, vice-president of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. It is a great privilege to listen to Mrs. Nichols and hear the wonderful messages she brings to the clubs. No one could listen to her and not feel inspired to do better and bigger things, as she most aptly said, "don't do your bit," "but do your best." Excellent solos were rendered by Miss Miller, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Joseph Barclay, of Narberth.

Mrs. Richard H. Hamilton, president of the Women's Club of Ardmore, and president of the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs also gave an appealing address to the club.

The interest manifested by the members and guests bore sufficient testimony to the success of the afternoon's program and much credit is due the chairman of the luncheon committee, her aides, the chairman of hospitality and all others who in any way participated.

The Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs held its tri-yearly meeting at Cynwyd on Thursday, October 25. The morning session em-

DASTARDLY ENEMY PLOT TO INJURE THE RED CROSS

The following message from General Manager Gibson at the National Headquarters tells its story so admirably that we simply repeat it in full and ask your fullest co-operation.

"It is evident that rumors and innuendos, critical of and calculated to embarrass the Red Cross, are being industriously circulated as part of an anti-patriotic propaganda. In so far as such statements or questions are merely efforts to obtain information they should be earnestly and sincerely met; but, many of the stories, utterly unwarranted in fact, emanate simultaneously from too many different parts of the country to be merely accidental. We suggest that you advise all chapters to tell all workers officially, advise the local press and everyone with whom they come in contact, of the character of the movement which is on foot, and to ask members and the public generally to proceed on this theory: THAT NOTHING TO THE DISCREDIT OF THE RED CROSS SHOULD BE BELIEVED UNTIL INVESTIGATED.

"Ask each branch and auxiliary chairman to send to the chapter an account of all such rumors and criticisms being circulated, as well as a statement of the source from which they come. Every criticism should be carefully investigated and, if found to be justified, the cause for the criticism should be removed, either in the chapter, at division headquarters, or at National headquarters.

"In all cases the Red Cross will bring the facts to the attention of interested persons. It is very important that the division headquarters and each local chapter be made to understand that the reputation and standing of the Red Cross locally is in the hands of local officers, interested workers and members; and that every criticism or innuendo against the Red Cross should be immediately challenged and followed up. The Red Cross is being run as an open book; it has no secrets; it is making a sincere effort to serve mankind and is doing it as carefully and as economically as it knows how. Its accounts are to be audited by the War Department, and the utmost effort is being made to give publicity to all its activities. Please see to it that these suggestions are made the subject of an earnest circular to every chapter urging the utmost thoroughness in attention to this matter."

SCHOOL NOTES

The Country Fair

"The Country Fair," held in our school a week ago, was a grand success from start to finish.

It was unique in every respect. The many people who waited for the opening of the doors wondered what it would be like. They had their eyes and ears wide open. Nor were they disappointed. There was something for every parent and child.

Probably the big hit was the "Heavenly Twins." Who would have expected that Miss Sailor would make such a splendid nurse, but how could she help it, with such charming babies to care for as Izzy and Wazzy? Space will not permit enumeration of the many various departments presided over by the members of the faculty. Probably no time within the history of the school has the faculty as a unit worked so untriflingly for a social function. Praise is due them all, particularly Mr. Emmett and Miss Fryer, who are largely responsible for the organization. The new building lends itself well to social functions such as this. It seems impossible that so large a crowd could be accommodated, but there seemed to be little confusion and "mix-up." The pupils demonstrated to their parents that the schools are teaching self-control, which must finally lead to self-government.

The displays throughout were of particular interest to the children, for every one had an opportunity to contribute something. The dog and cat show, the pig and all the rest of the family pets, provided an outlet for every pupil longing to have some part in making the fair a success. There were many blue and red ribbon dolls on display. Vegetables—many never heard of before nor to be heard of again, were submitted to the critical eye of the Narberth gardeners. The girls and mothers availed themselves of the opportunity to show off their culinary accomplishments. Let us forget, the faculty expresses its appreciation to the many mothers who so generously contributed articles for sale.

Financially, the fair was a success. The receipts for the various departments were as follows:

Gate receipts	$ 19.50
Dart game	.55
Shooting gallery	9.00
Flowers	2.85
Fancy work	2.75
Heavenly Twins	19.54
Refreshments	109.99
Fish pond	14.60
Dog show	7.25
Beauty show	13.54
Hypnotist, etc.	12.70

The gross income being $212.27

Expenses 61.43

The net proceeds were $150.84

But this social affair cannot be measured in terms of financial gain. The main object was to bring the men and women of Narberth to the schools to join the faculty, Board of Education, and pupils, and to have a jolly good time.

Our schools do not lose sight of the all-round development of the boys and girls. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

Through our school column we wish to extend a welcome to the new boys and girls who have enrolled since Institute. A few years ago everybody seemed to know everybody else, in the Narberth schools. Now things are different. There are so many strange faces! But our older boys and girls are doing their best to make everybody feel at home.

Notice to Parents

During the month of November, the school is planning for a series of "get-together-meetings." Fathers and mothers are invited to a round-table conference with the directors and faculty from 2.30 to 3.30 on the following dates:

Parents of children in grades 1 to 3—Wednesday, November 8.

Parents of children in grades 3 to 6—Wednesday, November 15.

Parents of children in grades 7 to 12—Thursday, November 22.

Everybody is, of course, welcome on any of these days whether they have children in any of the respective grades or not. The president of the Board will extend words of greeting following which the "question box" will be opened. Here will be a chance for parents to acquaint themselves with the schools.

Attendance of Pupils

The attendance during the past seven weeks has been exceptionally good. The great majority of pupils have missed no days. Fewer tardiness cases have been reported than are on record for a similar time. An insignificant number of early dismissals have been asked for. The enrollment today is 475. This number fills both buildings to their normal capacity.

The new plan for the first grade seems to meet with hearty approval. Certainly the children are getting far more individual attention than would otherwise be possible. The faculty recently held its consultation on individual matters of pupils as a result of which parents are now being visited by the respective teachers. It is hoped that parents will not await the visits of teachers, however. The best place to do school business is in the school.

Again the principal and faculty cordially invite parents to consider the school their school and to come and visit as often and to stay as long as possible.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
Governor Brumbaugh has issued a proclamation making Sunday, November 4, as "Go-to-Sunday-School Day" and Thursday, November 15, as "Father and Son" Day.
